- PARENTS / GUARDIANS ARE INVITED TO THE SCHOOL FROM 2.30 ONWARDS ON THE 15TH.
- Penweddig pupils will be organizing activities in the hall during the afternoon.
- Pupils are invited to wear outfits that represent the different countries – Children may wear a flag as a cloak if they wish.

Recycling Clothes – Bag2school – The school is arranging another collection of clothes. We kindly ask for any contributions to be placed in the appropriate bags (or any other bag) and to be brought to school by 9.30 on Monday, October 11th. The school receives a financial contribution for the clothes collected.

Open Evening – There will be an opportunity to discuss your child's educational development with the class teacher on Monday, October 18th 3.45 – 6 o'clock. You will need to note an appropriate time on the timetable on your child's classroom door. Six minutes will be available for each child. IT IS IMPORTANT TO KEEP TO THE TIME. The same arrangement will be in place for meeting Mrs. Julie Williams of the Additional Educational Needs Department.

If you have any issues that call for further discussion then please contact the school to make another appointment.

NURSERY CLASS Open Evening – Two open evenings have been arranged;
Monday, October 18th – Children who attend in the mornings.
Wednesday, October 20th – Children who attend in the afternoon.

Breakfast Club – If you arrive before 8.45 then you must register for the Breakfast Club even if you do not have food. We need to know how many pupils are on the campus for health and safety reasons.

If you have any worries regarding your child's education the please contact me immediately.
